MEMBERS REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION.

A well-known Salt Lake gentleman who acquired certain de-sirable lots on the East Bench (which command an unsur-passed view of the city, the valley, the Great Sait lake and the mountain ranges) during the boom of '89, has tired of holding longer waiting for raise in price and authorizes us to sell for about 40 per cent of their original cost. There are their original cost. There are three 25-foot lots on 11th East the property of Judge Miners' home, and two pairs on a short street running n 6th South street to the unds of Judge Miners' home. We are authorized to of-fer the three lots on 11th East for $1,000; one pair on the inside lots at $650, and the other at $600. Take the 2d South street car any evening, go out and look this property over, and be convinced that the view alone is worth all we are askfice at your convenience and we shall be very glad to go out with you. You might not think it but this location is about the same elevation as the L. D. hospital on 8th street. If figures quoted herein don't suit you make us a reasonable offer and we will see what can be done. In addition to the above we are offering choice vacant lots in every part of Salt Lake city. Among others, a corner in Popperton, the very choicest of them all: 100x125 feet for a ridiculous figure. We can shade $2.000 a little any day this week. Any agent in Salt Lake having a customer for this high class investment will do well to con-
